

DEVON FARMER'S SON WINS COLLEGE PRIZE

Devon farmer's son Chris Manley has received a prestigious award on graduating with a BSc (Hons) degree in Agriculture from Harper Adams University College.

Chris, whose parent's farm at Windsor Farm, Hemyock, Cullompton, has received the Rumenco Beef & Sheep Award for achieving top marks on the Sustainable Animal Productions Systems Lowland Beef & Sheep module. The assignment was based on a farm enterprise appraisal for a Shropshire suckler beef and sheep farm.

Chris will be spending another year at Harper Adams as elected President of the Student Union before pursuing a career in the agricultural industry.
